Welcome!

Mennonite Church USA is a tree with many branches. Its root system is nourished by a common Anabaptist heritage. Its trunk of missional purpose and design gives life and meaning to many branches of faithfulness and ministry.

This book is designed to get us acquainted with this organism of mission and ministry. It helps us navigate from branch to branch, and to know how, all together, the roots, trunk, and branches form the organism called Mennonite Church USA.

Church leaders, from congregational leaders to churchwide leaders, will find this book invaluable. It is meant to connect us with one another and inform us about one another so we see the tree, not just the branches.

As you use this directory, give thanks to God for the faithful leaders and important ministries it contains.

Our vision

Vision: Healing and Hope

God calls us to be followers of Jesus Christ and, by the power of the Holy Spirit,
to grow as communities
of grace, joy, and peace,
so that God's healing and hope flow through us to the world.

Joining in God's work in the world

Our priorities

As congregations, area conferences, churchwide ministries, and executive leadership of Mennonite Church USA, we are called to become a missional church by discerning God's purpose in the world and joining in that work. To help us become a missional church, we are challenged to develop leaders among us and to strengthen relationships with Mennonites around the globe and to work with other Christians to extend the reign of God on earth.

Affirmed by the Mennonite Church USA Delegate Assembly, July 2003.

A symbol of our faith

Mennonite
Church
USA

Time after time, the Spirit in the form of a dove announces the coming of God to us. As Mennonites we recognize the centrality of Christ as proclaimed in Scripture, revealed through the Holy Spirit, and discerned in Christian community. This symbol, which has been specially designed for the Mennonite Church, reflects these basic tenents.

For information about the use and application of the logo, visit the Mennonite Church USA web site at www.MennoniteUSA.org and click on Visual Identity for Mennonite Church USA in the resources section.

One Mennonite's reflection on the meaning of our symbol:

A strength of the image for the Mennonite Church is that it "touches down" at a number of places in our salvation history.

- It brings to mind Genesis 1 and creation—the flood and the dove returning with the olive branch—the biblical themes of hope and creation.

- It brings to mind the prophets' aspiration for a kingdom of peace. I think of Isaiah and Micah's visions.

- It brings to mind Jesus's baptism, where the dove appears with a voice from God affirming, "this is my beloved Son."

- It brings to mind the experience of Pentecost, with the descent of the Holy Spirit, bringing the message of new life.

- It brings to mind the Anabaptist vision, with its theme of peace and renewal in the 16th century.

- It points us to God and the Holy Spirit, inviting us to move forward with Christ and seek the kingdom, encouraging us to aspire to a new heaven and new earth. The image suggests to me the biblical pilgrimage, enveloping us with a reference to past, present and future.

Editor's note

I hope you'll find the new edition of the Mennonite Directory to be a valuable resource. In it you'll find connections to Mennonite Church USA ministers, congregations, area conferences, and churchwide ministries. You'll also find connections to other agencies, Mennonite World Conference, and sister denominations, including Mennonite Church Canada.

A new related feature is the online directory found on the home page of Mennonite Church USA (www.MennoniteUSA.org). In this online version of the Directory, you'll find constantly updated congregational and ministerial information, as well as easy access to the websites for conferences and agencies.

I hope you'll also regularly refer to page four, which states our churchwide vision, as well as our priority to become a missional church. As followers of Christ, we are becoming a new church, a missional church. We want to join in what God is already doing in the world. In our worship and life together, in our ministry and outreach, we want to give people a glimpse of God's intentions for the whole world. We want to welcome sinners, love our enemies, and be visibly different from the culture around us as a sign of what God is doing in the world.

In a recent survey, more than one-quarter of us already recognize the missional vision, a broad interchurch movement more than 50 years old that has had significant input from Mennonite thinkers and leaders. In developing the survey for our church members, interviews with pastors showed strong support for becoming a missional church. Pastors want to be part of a healthy, growing church—in their own congregations and in the broader denomination.

This Directory includes our missional family. Please use it to pray each day for our church leaders and congregations.

The Mennonite Church USA 2005 Directory is the result of a lot of hard work by a lot of people. You'll find some of these persons listed on the title page. I'd also like to thank area conference staff who worked with their congregations to provide up-to-date information.

May this Directory help shape our life together as we seek to follow Christ's call for Mennonite Church USA and as we continue on our journey to become the missional church God wants us to become.

Associate Executive Director
Mennonite Church USA

CONSTITUENCY LEADERS COUNCIL (CLC)

Leaders from each area conference and recognized group meet together at least twice each year to provide counsel and advice to the Mennonite Church USA Executive Board and to engage in conference-to-conference dialogue. Representatives are listed in sections 2 and 3 with each conference and recognized group.

The representational voice and counsel of conference and constituent group leaders is heard through the Constituency Leaders Council. CLC members worship and pray together, encourage faithfulness, share ideas and resources, process concerns, and discern direction on issues of faith and life in Mennonite Church USA. The CLC serves as a primary forum for conference-to-conference conversation and networking, as a place for conferences and constituency groups to talk together with churchwide agency representatives, and as a voice for agenda from the grassroots to surface with the Executive Board.

Each conference is invited to send up to three representatives to the CLC, at least one of which should be a conference minister. Recognized constituency groups may send two representatives to the CLC. The Mennonite Church USA moderator-elect serves as the chair of the group, and a vice chair is chosen by CLC members each biennium. One role of the CLC is to nominate half of the eight-member Leadership Discernment Committee for election by the Delegate Assembly.

INFORMATION

Mennonite Mission Network, the mission agency of Mennonite Church USA, exists to lead, mobilize and equip the church to participate in holistic witness to Jesus Christ in a broken world. We envision every congregation and all parts of the church being fully engaged in God's mission—across the street, all through the marketplaces and around the world. The Mission Network supports ministries in more than 55 countries.

Mennonite Mission Network has three priorities: (1) engage people and cultures with the gospel of Jesus Christ, (2) start and cultivate missional congregations and (3) foster a missional identity in the church. For more information about the Mission Network, request a copy of Mission Mosaic: The People and Ministries of Mennonite Mission Network by telephone, e-mail, or mail.

INFORMATION

MMA was founded in 1945. Its mission is to lead Anabaptists toward greater practice of biblical principles of holistic stewardship.

MMA's Board of Directors is elected or appointed from Mennonite Church USA, the Missionary Church, Brethren in Christ Church, Conservative Mennonite Conference, and Mennonite Brethren Church. The organization is composed of 12 active legal entities that handle its administrative services and operate its programs.

MMA offers expertise and assistance to Mennonites and other Anabaptists in pursuing stewardship solutions through its diversified insurance and financial services, as well as charitable programs and educational resources.

Insurance includes health, life, long-term care, and disability income coverage, with plans for individuals and groups.

Financial services include mutual funds, annuities, trust services and estate consultation, Mennonite Retirement Trust, staff pension plan for congregations and church institutions, and investment management for individuals and institutions. MMA provides institutions and congregations with mortgages and other financing. All investments are guided by stewardship investing principles.

Mennonite Foundation provides planned charitable giving for individuals and planned giving services for institutions. Mennonite Foundation offers seminars and other educational events and serves members of Mennonite Church USA and other Mennonite and Anabaptist-related groups.

MMA's fraternal benefits include matching grants, educational resources, Stewardship University, and stewardship ministries. Fraternal benefits are made possible because part of MMA is a fraternal benefit association, and money that would otherwise be paid in taxes is instead channeled to members and churches. Fraternal benefits do not increase members' premiums or fees.

Mennonite World Conference

4

Mennonite World Conference (MWC) is a global community of Christian churches who trace their beginning to the 16th-century Radical Reformation in Europe, particularly to the Anabaptist movement. Today close to 1.3 million believers belong to this faith family. At least 60 percent of these believers are African, Asian, or Latin American. Mennonite Church USA is one of 95 Mennonite and Brethren in Christ (BIC) national churches from 52 countries on six continents that MWC represents.

Mennonite World Conference is called to be a communion (Koinonia) of Anabaptist-related churches linked to one another in a worldwide community of faith for fellowship, worship, service, and witness.

MWC exists to (1) be a global community of faith in the Anabaptist tradition, (2) facilitate community among Anabaptist-related churches worldwide, and (3) relate to other Christian world communions and organizations.

With MWC, Mennonite Church USA believes that the church is a worldwide body where people of different cultures and nations are "no longer strangers … but members of God's household" (Ephesians 2:19).

PROFILE

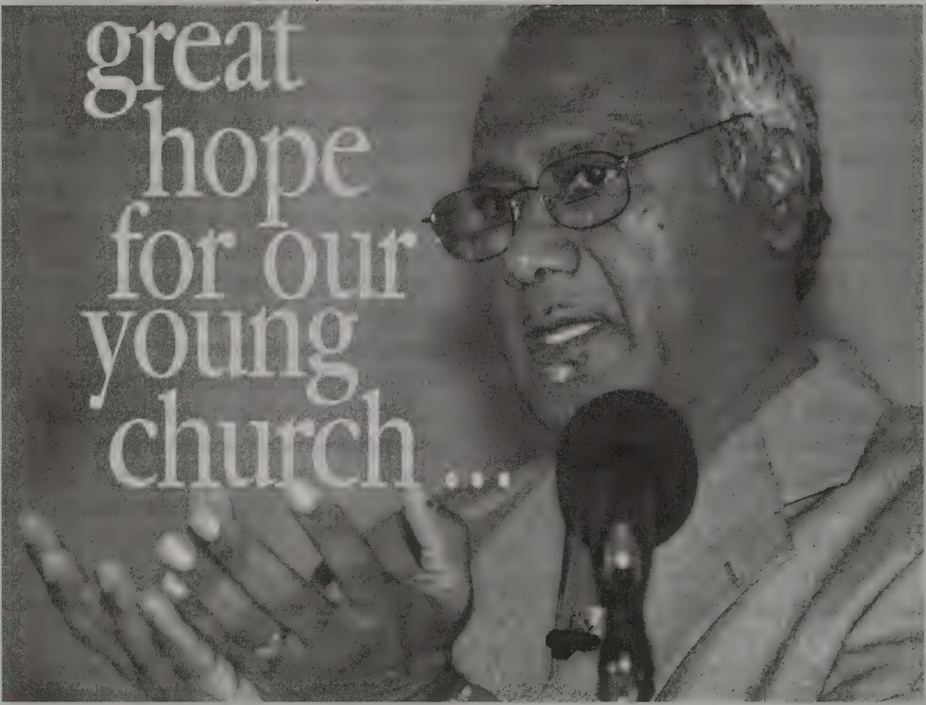
The Mennonite Brethren are a people of faith, history and mission. In 1860, spiritual renewal among Russian Mennonites resulted in groups of believers meeting together for fellowship and Bible study. A close spiritual kinship resulted, and the group became known as "brethren," and eventually, "Mennonite Brethren." Mennonite Brethren are now found in more than 20 countries around the world.

The U.S. Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches is made up of five district conferences that serve more than 200 churches in the United States. The Conference consists of ministries, including National Youth Commission, Peace Commission, cross-cultural ministries, church planting, discipleship, evangelism, mission both at home and abroad, education (Christian schools, two four-year liberal arts colleges, and a seminary), a denominational magazine, and stewardship resources and education. The Mennonite Brethren also participate in the relief and caring ministries of Mennonite Central Committee.

The national headquarters is located in Hillsboro, Kansas, which is also home to Tabor College. On the west coast, Fresno Pacific University, Mennonite Brethren Biblical Seminary, and the headquarters for the mission agency, MBMS International, all are located in Fresno, California.



I have great hope for our young church ...

Roy Williams, pastor of College Mennonite Church, Tampa, Fla., and moderator-elect of Mennonite Church USA.

Mennonite Church USA is a church of the future. As we take ever more confident steps, we are trusting in God's abiding love to help us overcome the challenges of being a faithful people in the 21st century. God has prepared a banquet for us and we are being sent out, inviting friends, neighbors and strangers to join us until we become the diverse and multi-cultural people we have dreamed of being ... the sign of God's kingdom on earth.

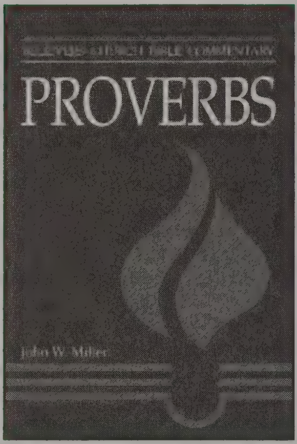
Bible Commentary



Available November 2004

Proverbs
John W. Miller
The uniqueness of this commentary is its detailed, first-time uncovering of evidence that there were two editions of Proverbs, the first in the time of Solomon and the second created by "the men of Hezekiah" in support of King Hezekiah's historic religious reforms. Up to this time the puzzling features of the book's design, purpose, and message are clarified in this light and the book's relevance for its time and ours greatly enhanced.

"Here is solid scholarship with certain unpopular twists and interpretations. In place of a pedantic verse by verse approach, this thematic treatment of Proverbs provides a surprisingly contemporary manual on some critical issues of Christian discipleship. Miller offers very helpful pastoral insights for the 21st-century preacher."—James M. Lapp, Franconia Mennonite Conference

Paper. 400 pages. 0-8361-9292-3: $24.99; in Canada $34.99

These commentaries, informed by recent scholarship, are written for lay leaders, teachers, pastors, college and seminary students, and all those searching the Bible for truth and life.

Available now: Genesis; Exodus; Judges; Ruth, Jonah, Esther; Jeremiah; Ezekiel; Daniel; Hosea, Amos; Matthew; Mark; Acts; Romans; 2 Corinthians; Ephesians; Colossians, Philemon; 1-2 Thessalonians; 1-2 Peter, Jude; and Revelation.
